

Julie was amazing! She had so many options of invitations to choose from and I was able to touch and feel everything before I made the order. Everything was professional and she was very flexible with her availability. I wanted some very specific paper and got the best deal through her. I paid half of what the internet wanted to charge. I highly recommend!

My invitations were so beautiful, the experience went so smoothly, and Julie was so professional that I had a cousin in Seattle ask for Julie's name specifically from me, so that she could have it for future reference!

My invitations were absolutely stunning. Everyone commented on how classy and elegant they were and Julie helped pick out the one that matched exactly what we needed. Out of the entire experience she was a vendor I especially appreciated and I would recommend her again. I tried to do save the dates with other vendors but the quality when they came back was so poor. Julie's invitations were incredible. Glad to see the difference in professionalism. She was also very fast and helped us quickly through the process Use her!

Julie did an amazing job on our wedding invitations!

We did not really know what we wanted our invitations to look like when we first went to look at invitations. I (as the woman) had an idea about what I thought would look great, but my husband was a little finicky about what he liked. She was able to customize an invitation that we both loved!

We had so many compliments about how elegant and beautiful our invitations were. It was the first impression of what the wedding was going to be like. She hit the nail on the head!

The invitation place was excellent to work with. I had looked many places trying to find my wedding invitations. When I met with Julie it was an excellent experience. She was able to find exactly what I wanted. She spent a great deal of time working on my order and making sure it was correct. I would recommend her for all brides that need invitations!

Julie was great to work with, her knowledge and experience made finding the right invitation, and having the correct wording easy. I loved the selection and knowing that a highly detail oriented person was overseeing my order to help insure everything turned out how I wanted it. Her recommendations helped pull together all of my invitation details into a beautiful package that we loved. She also has options and pricing to fit any budget, and the time you will save vs DIY is priceless.

Julie did a great job on getting back to us and making the process very simple. My Mom and I got to the point of being overwhelmed and she was able to take a lot of stress of us. She did our invitations, seating chart, and menu's. They all turned out perfectly and even better then what I imagined
